Help Train SRI LANKAN PASTORS to Reach Their Muslim Neighbors!

▲ Sri Lankan pastors like these will receive training to reach their Muslim neighbors for Christ.

Christians in Sri Lanka continue to suffer persecution. Many are persecuted by Buddhist militants, but others are persecuted by Muslims, just as the church in Batticaloa was attacked by Muslim radicals connected to ISIS on Easter Day.

One pastor currently serving in a fundamentalist Muslim village on Sri Lanka's eastern coast said he receives constant death threats and on one occasion thought he would die as a result of the persecution.

Muslims make up 9.7% of the population in Sri Lanka, but very little Christian outreach is taking place amongst the growing Muslim communities. Many Christians either don't understand their Muslim neighbors, or they are afraid of them.

But now VOM Korea is partnering together with Sri Lankan church leaders to provide training so that Sri Lankan Christians can reach their Muslim neighbors for Christ. This training will focus on how to evangelize someone from a Muslim background and how to best disciple a Muslim Background Believer.

If you are interested in sponsoring these trainings, you can visit www.vomkorea.com/en/donation or give via electronic transfer to:
